

Application Check List

<input type="checkbox"/>	Foreign driver's license The first issue date must be mentioned on it. If it isn't, you may need to obtain an official driver's record from the issuing authority.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Japanese translation of your foreign driver's license An official translation done by JAF or consulate is required .
<input type="checkbox"/>	Passport Bring old ones too if available.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Resident card
<input type="checkbox"/>	Residence certificate (住民票抄本 Juminhyo shohon) 1. Your nationality MUST be mentioned 2. Personal number MUST NOT be mentioned
<input type="checkbox"/>	Two identical color photos (H 3cm × W 2.4 cm) You can take photos at the license center (600 yen). No hat or cap. No background. Must be taken within 6 months. High-resolution image.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Japanese driver's license (If you have one, even if it's expired.)
<input type="checkbox"/>	Documents to prove physical presence for more than 90 days in the license issuing country
<input type="checkbox"/>	Fees (Cash Only) Application fee: standard automobile 2,550 yen , scooter 1,500 yen, motorcycle 2,600 yen. License issuance fee: 2,050 yen. Driving test fee (If you have) : 1,450 yen.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Appropriate outfit Glasses or Contact lenses. No sandals if you have the driving test.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Others (If you have a license of Australia, Philippines Thailand, Korea, China, or if you are related to US military personnel)

※ The documents below are the most effective.

Passport : As long as your country always keeps the record of entry and departure with the official stamps:

Tax paper : Needs the date of your residency.

The documents below can become as effective as above if you have multiple.

Various certificates : Graduation certificate, Diploma ,Job certificate and Military certificate.

Official letters from former organizations (Refer to the smple letter).

Contract documents : house, employment etc.

Pay slip

The documents below can be supplementary.

Receipt : Utility fees, rent and phones.

ID card : Student ID etc.