

Yasuyuki Kawahigashi (Univ.Tokyo)

Operator algebras and vertex operator algebras in conformal field theory

Abstract: We have two mathematical approaches to two-dimensional conformal field theory. One is based on theory of operator algebras and the other is on vertex operator algebras. We present recent relations between the two, and discuss their possible connections to complex geometry and noncommutative geometry.